★ Move To Jeonju by private bus (It takes approximately 3.5 hours)

★ Jeonju Hanok Village

Jeonju is a city with a 1200-year history that inherits and develops traditional Korean culture, including hanoks(traditional Korean houses), food, and intangible cultural heritage. In the hanok village, densely packed with about 700 houses, you will visit Gyeonggijeon, where the portrait of King Taejo Lee Seong-gye, the founder of the Joseon Dynasty, is enshrined. Near Jeondong Cathedral, where the first Catholic believers were martyred, you can feel the 500 years of the Joseon Dynasty encapsulated in a single frame of a photo, along with the scenery. As you walk a bit further, you will encounter Pungnammun, the representative gate of Jeonju from the Joseon era. Designated as Treasure No. 308, it is another must-visit place in Jeonju where you can sense the traces of the Joseon era.

★ Jeonju Nambu Traditional Market

Additionally, you can explore the vibrant daily life of Jeonju citizens by strolling through the Nambu Market, where you can taste various local foods, unique delicacies, and world-renowned dishes. Experience a variety of attractions, including a flea market and cultural performances, in which local artists and residents participate. After checking in the hotel, indulge in a delightful dinner featuring Jeonju's unique specialties. One of the highlights of Jeonju tourism is the night view of the Hanok Village. Enjoy the fascinating entertainment and food offerings in Hanok Village.
